It is important for your safety and enjoyment that your tow vehicle be adequately sized and equipped to tow and handle the GVWR of the RV you select. Review weights and rating of your tow vehicle and consult a competent advisor for questions or advice. Whether you are new to RVing or a veteran, get a feel for the performance of your tow vehicle and the RV together before heading out on the roadways. When you tow an RV, you must drive differently than you do when driving a single vehicle. Practice hooking up, driving, backing up, and braking in a safe environment or seek out professional instruction. Jayco affixes a weight label to each RV which lists weight information for that vehicle. See specification chart above.

Unloaded Vehicle Weight (UWV): Sometimes referred to as "Dry Weight," UWV means the typical weight of this trailer as built at the factory. The UWV, as used in product literature and other promotional materials, does not include cargo, fresh water, propane gas, options, or dealer-installed accessories.

Gross Vehicle Weight Rating (GVWR): GVWR means the maximum permissible weight of the trailer, including the UWV plus passengers, personal items, all cargo, fluids, options, and dealer-installed accessories. The GVWR is equal to or greater than the sum of the UWV and the CCC.

Cargo Carrying Capacity (CCC): CCC means the maximum weight of all passengers, personal items, food, fresh water, propane, tools, other cargo, and dealer-installed accessories that can be carried by the trailer. CCC is equal to or less than GVWR minus UWV. The addition of options will decrease the CCC.

Hitch Weight (HW): The hitch weight, as used in product literature and other promotional materials, does not include cargo, fresh water, LP gas, options or dealer-installed accessories. The addition of these types of items will either add to or subtract from the stated hitch weight. Sport Utility trailers are designed to be towed with a loaded cargo bay.
